moving forward

Rxseboy

Uh (Yeah)

Yeah, water the rose, I feel the highs and the lows
I got the world upon my shoulders so I stay on my toes
I'm playin' baseball
Everybody changed up
I just hit a home run
Now I'm winnin' state cup
I don't play no sports but I used to be an athlete
Runnin' from emotions stayin' focused on my passion
I'm gettin' slide tackled by jealousy and envy
Jumpin' over mountains, avalanches aren't friendly
They just wanna kill me, and they just wanna end me
And I just wanna pop off, and you ain't gotta mention
The past because it's over with Door to the future I'm never closin' it
Until the reaper catch me, I'm livin' like I'm a Dobermann
I'm confident in my abilities, that's why they feelin' me
I don't ever do cocaine but got agility
Yeah, yeah, I'm sorry, that's my speed talkin'
And when they see me in public I might be speedwalkin'
'Cause, yeah, I'm moving forward
Yeah
