

not alright

Rxseboy

I could write a melody so heavily
But nothing will ever set me apart from what they're telling me
We're enemies at heart, that's wifey in the mirror
Momma told me not to worry
In the end I couldn't hear her

I work all day and cry all night
I really hate my life I'm not alright
I tend to waste my time inside my mind
I really hate my life I'm not alright
So I'm asleep all day and wake up tired
Then I text my friends "I just got fired"
Tell me I'm no good and that's just fine
Because I hate my life I'm not alright

Yeah
Sometimes feel like I gotta cry
Other times got my eye on the prize
Tell me "bro you been winnin' at life"
And yeah, I know but I'm sick of the lies
Tell me money would make everything fine
And my ego is the size of a dime
And my success isn't anything now
So depressed and I'm wanting to, go to sleep
I keep a track that was sold to me
Getting older and then finding pieces
I'm just finding pieces that I'll never keep Life is a game of chess
I'm needing something that aids the stress
I'm waking up just to face a mess
It's funny 'cause I haven't made it yet

I work all day and cry all night
I really hate my life I'm not alright
I tend to waste my time inside my mind
I really hate my life I'm not alright
So I'm asleep all day and wake up tired
Then I text my friends "I just got fired"
Tell me I'm no good and that's just fine
Because I hate my life I'm not alright

I never was
Oh, I just hate being alone (so alone)
So I never stay at my home (at my home)
Yeah, I go to work at my job (it sucks)
Hoping that one day this pain will stop

I work all day and cry all night
I really hate my life I'm not alright
I tend to waste my time inside my mind
I really hate my life I really hate my life
So I'm asleep all day and wake up tired
Then I text my friends "I just got fired"
Tell me I'm no good and that's just fine
Because I hate my life I'm not alright
I never was
