

ordinary

Rxseboy

Take my hand and don't lie to me
I've been a fool
I've been falling to your eyes
Take my hand and don't lie, don't lie to me

Yeah, maybe I'm too ordinary
Gotta pop my shit, need a sword to carry
If I can't go back to the way shit was
They gon' find me dead in a mortuary
But I don't think that it's on me
Just getting figures in the hills like I'm Tommy
When you were chilling in your room off a Oxy'
Take one more you gon' turn to a zombie
I swear that's braindead activity
Saying you hate me but you're feeling me
So you come through late night no date night
Mix drugs with the misery
So high I don't know if you're listening
Wait, wake up and forget why you're visiting
How'd you go from the one to an enemy
I hate that you turn real love to memory
I hope you remember me

Take my hand and don't lie to me
I've been a fool
I've been falling to your eyes
Take my hand and don't lie, don't lie to me

Yeah, maybe you're too complicated
Talk about bullshit every conversation
You said I don't even have an occupation
Yet I made one M' off a contemplation
All the drama ain't a thing to me
I just wanna feel the love that you bring to me
Took that right back there's a pain in me
Can't you tell this shit is not a game to me
Hope I got more worth than the funds in my bank account
You're somebody I don't really wanna stay without But you get so high and the time flies by Incoherent every time I wanna take you out
I guess I'll go back to my bad decisions
Where I say fuck you and I lack forgiveness
Yeah, I know that I might be ordinary
But I would turn back time for your past to glisten

Take my hand and don't lie to me
I've been a fool
I've been falling to your eyes
Take my hand and-
