

PSYCHO

Rxseboy

Do you even care 'bout me? no, no
Pulling out your hair lately, woah-woah
Does it help you grow?
You just wanna fight when we walk out the door
Then blame it on me for the next 24, oh, and I can't take it anymore

I don't want control, I'm telling you
I'm fine here on my own
Why do you wanna watch me spiral?
Baby, you're the psycho to me

I would rather never see your face again
My only wasted time is the time I spent
Tryna calm you down (tryna calm you down)
You tell me, "we should make plans today"
I know you got some blood on your hands today
Your love is really something that I can't escape
Then you show up unannounced
Now I gotta say

I don't want control, I'm telling you
I'm fine here on my own
Why do you wanna watch me spiral?
Baby, you're the psycho to me

Psycho
You're the psycho to me
Psycho
You're the psycho to me
I'm scared of my surroundings
'Cause you're the psycho to me

I don't want control, I'm telling you
I'm fine here on my own
Why do you wanna watch me spiral?
Baby, you're the psycho to me

I don't want control, I'm telling you
I'm fine here on my own
Why do you wanna watch me spiral?
Baby, you're the psycho to me
