Rainfall

Rxseboy

Long ago I danced in the rain
Nowadays I can't be the same
And today I just felt the pain
Honestly, I must be insane

Yeah, I'm so done that I can't deal
And I'm so numb that I can't feel
It's all cause of the rainfall
It's all cause of the rainfall

I really wanna be what they wanna see
I don't wanna be another wannabe
I don't even know what they want from me
Lately I been feelin' it's been hauntin' me

All the confidence and the common sense
Went away when they were most prominent
I'll be honest here, I was flauntin' it
Took it all for granted, and then I lost a bit

I regret it all when I said it all
And at first I really thought I set it off
On a better path, tried to be
Serious, I never laughed

It was workin' out, I was gettin' cash
Then I spent it all and now I'm gettin' smacked
By a couple people that had trust in me
Tell me off and said that they were done with me

This type of stuff isn't fun to see
When it happens there is nothing under me
At the lowest point I could ever be at
I just wanna... nah

Long ago I danced in the rain
Nowadays I can't be the same
And today I just felt the pain
Honestly, I must be insane

Yeah, I'm so done that I can't deal
And I'm so numb that I can't feel
It's all cause of the rainfall
It's all cause of the rainfall

Long ago I danced in the rain
Nowadays I can't be the same
And today I just felt the pain
Honestly, I must be insane

Yeah, I'm so done that I can't deal
And I'm so numb that I can't feel
It's all cause of the rainfall
It's all cause of the rainfall

I been tryna turn into a better man
But the rain is comin', I'm the weatherman

Trying to predict it like a forecast
Take a couple steps into your past

I can tell that something bad probably happened
And it's too sad to imagine
But don't worry I feel the same
It's been taking over almost everything

Feeling like I gotta work it out
Even if the feeling's lurking now
I don't care if it be hurting now
The rain is flooding every church in town

Can't stop it, I'm heartless
It's so rough like shark skin
All these sharks keep barking
They want me to hop in

To the cold water that's been gettin' deeper
If I do that, I'ma meet the reaper
And the come up sides gettin' steeper
It would level out if I wasn't weaker

Than the other people that are in the game
Yeah I think I'm different but it's hard to say
If I never make it I still made some gains
Life is so good, but I still complain

Long ago I danced in the rain
Nowadays I can't be the same
And today I just felt the pain
Honestly, I must be insane

Yeah, I'm so done that I can't deal
And I'm so numb that I can't feel
It's all cause of the rainfall
It's all cause of the rainfall

Long ago I danced in the rain
Nowadays I can't be the same
And today I just felt the pain
Honestly, I must be insane
