

stop thinking so much

Rxseboy

One take
I resent the past, out my head with an empty flask
Just chill out with a simple task
Only four bars deep you ain't get me back, uh
Yeah, you won't get me back
And I think so much I can't help but laugh
Then I hit that wall and see hours pass
Put me right back in with another half, yeah
They don't really like me but it's all good Deep down I'm a fraud like I'm Saul Good
I can never solve this but a gun should
Said I didn't wanna fuck but she still did it
Fake love till I'm gone then its good riddance
I don't really wanna die who am I kidding
But I don't really wanna live if my life isn't how they show it on the screen maybe I'm trippin'

Nah life is so beautiful, why did they lie to me
I walk around paranoid where the lions be My final thoughts will be jotted in diaries
Afterlife soon but they best not be trying me
Glorious death in the end with a sigh of grief
Fit this eternity I hope I die in peace

Oh oh oh oh (Oh oh)
I hope I die in peace
Oh oh oh oh (Oh oh)
Oh oh
Oh-oh-oh
