

Strangers Again

Rxseboy

I saw your face in the city lights
I turned away when it got too bright
I know it hurts
We're strangers again (Strangers again)

Hey, there's no hidin' the truth
It's really over and I'm sorry, I was lyin' to you
I didn't think that you would find me while I cried in my room
I couldn't face reality, but that's what dying'll do, it's true
And I'm hoping you never forget me
Or our first drive 'round the park where you met me
I don't know where the light is gonna send me
But next time, I hope we get to pick a different ending

I saw your face in the city light
I turned away when it got too bright
I know it hurts
We're strangers again (Strangers again)

Hey, so have I seen you before?
Sorry for askin', honestly though, I just want to be sure
'Cause when I looked in your eyes, I saw the rest of my life
But in the back of my mind, swear I heard you whisper goodbyes
So it's like (So it's like)
I don't really know what this means
But you look like the person I would always see in my dreams
Maybe it's not what it seems
I know I shouldn't make too big of an issue
But tell me why it feels like I've missed you

I saw your face in the city light
I turned away when it got too bright
I know it hurts
We're strangers again (Strangers again)
