

Take A Chance

Rxseboy

I wanna make amazing music
I wanna break the mold so they won't say I'm useless
Like who's this
A random dude, sayin' "Please wait"
Addin' stress to me, I never had no leeway
I could be the greatest, yeah I made a song about it
Really thought that they would hate it, 'till I saw they saw the value
Take every single chance like I'm reckless
I gotta show 'em, opportunity is endless

Stuck in a cycle of normality
And honestly, that was never how it had to be
These people livin' casual, and sadly it's a tragedy
So go unlock your purpose, find your worth, you sittin' passively
No lie, I'm depressed, so I get it
Every day you wake up with the thoughts about the things you regret
And wish you could edit every message you sendin'
Because you never think it through
That is nothin' you can do
I hope that people start to listen
And see the vision instead of seein' nothing 'cause trust me
I know I'm good enough but that isn't cuttin' it anymore
Do what you want and what you love
'Cause once it's said and done, it's over, you outta luck

I wanna make amazing music
I wanna break the mold so they won't say I'm useless
Like who's this
A random dude, sayin' "Please wait"
Addin' stress to me, I never had no leeway
I could be the greatest, yeah I made a song about it
Really thought that they would hate it, 'till I saw they saw the value
Take every single chance like I'm reckless
I gotta show 'em, opportunity is endless

I wanna make amazing music
I wanna break the mold so they won't say I'm useless
Like who's this
A random dude tryna be great
That's it
