

Trapped

Rxseboy

I've been trapped in my thoughts, baby
I'm so fed up
You got me
Rollin' up
Smoke fills up my lungs
I've been
Lost in my thoughts
Don't know
What's going on
You got me all distraught
Smoke fills up my lungs
I've been

Trapped in my mind
Around every corridor you're what I find
Every time I try to leave you behind
You get back in front of me, asking you why
But you never answer, gave you a chance
Called me the devil, I asked you to dance
I'm losing myself inside of everything that you doing
You tore me apart then you left me in ruins
I cannot leave, I'm in chains
After this, I'ma never be the same
After this, I know you still got a plot for me
Say I'm insane, now I need a lobotomy
No one could stomach the things that you do to me
It's been a minute but this isn't new to me
Say that you love me but you cannot trust me
I call out your issues, you act like it's nothing
But it's something
Remember the day you came to my apartment
It felt like a dream until I saw that you were heartless
Now everyday I spend with you is one of my darkest
I wanna escape the pain but...

I've been trapped in my thoughts, baby
I'm so fed up
You got me, rollin' up
Smoke fills up my lungs
I've been
Lost in my thoughts
Don't know
What's going on
You got me all distraught
Smoke fills up my lungs
I've been
