904, that's where I be
Love is like a posion, name is ivy
Found another one she a dime piece
Telling me to do whatever I please
Never texting back, its like my b
Crazy how ya parents didn't like me
Really tried to turn you to a wifey
You just wanna post up on ya IG
Thotty with a body, you insane
Don't know whatchu doing to my brain
Told me that it don't feel the same
How bout if I get a lot of fame
Put you up, you never coming down
Penalizing me, I'm outta bounds
I've been on a plane, I'm hopping towns
When I'm coming back, you not around

You could be the one [x16]

Yea. Just tried calling
Didn't answer but I'm out here balling
FaceTime me see the tears start falling
Saying girl calm down, okey just be honest
Tell me yo' waiting me. Misery haunting me
Feeling assaulting me. I'll keep you company
Ran up a check for you, now you gon run from me
Wow
Try to be there, I don't know how
Wanna be fair, but it's no use
Say you love me when it goes down
I been having dreams of the old you
Took a limousine to the airport
You were tryna cheat too
I was tryna think about a new girl
But I hate myself and I need you

This is what heaven sent
Can't reminisce. On sentiment

You so sweet, like cinnamon
But I'll never see you again
