

All I Have

Ry x

(All I have)
(All I have)

A scar and veil in my mind
Ashes caught in my eyes
I buried you in my head
We could stay in the water
With the breath that we hardly breathe

I would love to love you
I would love to need you
Turn around and leave you
But you're caught in my heart
I would love to find you
I'm the one that had you
Free yourself and leave me now
You're caught in my darkness

(All I have)
(All I have)
(All I have)
(All I have)

Silver moon on your skin
Blood from stone, let me in
Hands burnt from gasoline
Feel the rise of our fallen
In her name when I swim too deep

I would love to love you
I would love to need you
Turn around and leave you
But you're caught in my heart
I would love to find you
I'm the one that had you
Free yourself and leave me now
You're caught in my darkness

(All I have)
(All I have)
(All I have)
You're caught in my darkness
(All I have)
(All I have)
(All I have)
You're caught in my darkness

All I have is you
All I have is you
All I have is you
And all I want is you
