

Always Remember Me

Ry x

Two by two, lovers stand
On the beach in Santa Monica
Pretty eyes, long hair
Smells so sweet
Like summer's in the air

Watch me as I fall
Into the water calling
Watch me as I sink
Into the sea
And always remember me

Come back, back to me
Back to where the mountains meet the sea
We'll build a house of driftwood
And keep it simple
'Cause simple is good

Watch me as I fall
Into the water calling
Watch me as I sink
Into the sea
And always remember me

Watch me as I fall
Into the water calling
Watch me as I sink
Into the sea
And always remember me
