

Colorblind

Ry x

Through the night and our thoughts
Reaching me, caught in stone
Speak your name through the light
Plead for me, colorblind

Hold it all in your body
Hold it all in your mind
Say it all in your silence here
Say it all in your truth tonight
Hold it all in your body
Keep it all in your mind
Say it all in your silent hears
Say it all in your truth tonight

Through the mist, cross the line
Sheath to play, hold the fire
Plead to me, take the reigns
Only you in my veins

Hold it all in your body
Hold it all in your mind
Say it all in your silence here
Say it all in your truth tonight
Hold it all in your body
Keep it all in your mind
Say it all in your silent hears
Say it all in your truth tonight

Hold it all in your body
Hold it all in your mind
Say it all in your silence here
Say it all in your truth tonight
Hold it all in your body
Keep it all in your mind
Say it all in your silent hears
Say it all in your truth tonight
