

Crawl

Ry x

I need to go and crawl outta sight
Falling to pieces, caught in the fire
It's too late to call and too late to climb
Caught in the feelings, you're only in your mind

I need to go and crawl outta sight
Falling to pieces, caught in the fire
It's too late to call and too late to climb
Caught in the feelings, you're only in your mind

I wanna know that you're feeling
I wanna know what's inside
Do you know what you're feeling?
Is it only in the shape of my mind?
