

Already Gone

Ryan Adams

All along

Said you won't be back
Said you don't want to know
I could tell
I could tell that you would
Said you want
Said you ever even spend the time
Runnin
Middle of the night
To [?]

And nobody else can

Ain't nobody here

Look at all the shadows that you cast
You see the sun is setting fast
In the water, [] will not fall
It is not rain
It's not rain at all
Volunteers
They're the reason the Earth's still alive
Still they fell
And nobody gave them [?] to run

You're already gone
You're already gone
You're already gone
Hey
Hey
You're gone
Hey
