

Anything

Ryan Adams

Another day
Another night
The water's deep
The water's wide
Broken ocean
And a broken sky

Hands are shaking, baby
And the mountain cries
Why is it so brutal starting again?

On fire and no heat
No wind
It's all bingo numbers and nobody wins

It isn't anything, then it is
It isn't anything, then it is

We are wild
I don't remember anything
Back against the wall
Always in danger
Never to be special again
It was just a dream and I went
Another day, another night spent
It's all bingo numbers, nobody wins
Nobody wins

It isn't anything, then it is
It isn't anything, then it is
It isn't anything
Then it is
Ooh ooh
It isn't anything, then it is
