

Cobwebs

Ryan Adams

Somewhere impossible light still shines
And every smile is if as new
Sometimes I feel like the static in the attic
Is making me just confused

If I fall, will you catch me?
If I'm sorry, sorry enough
If I fall, will you pity me?
Will you confuse my love for the cobwebs?
Confuse my love for the cobwebs

I always pause if I can on 5th avenue
Look uptown with my head in the stars
Somewhere the buildings give way to sunlight
Give way to east and west Central Park

If I fall, will you catch me?
If I'm sorry, sorry enough
If I fall, will you pity me?
Will you confuse my love for the cobwebs?
Will you confuse my love for the cobwebs?
For the cobwebs

Will you confuse my love for the cobwebs?
Confuse my love for the cobwebs
Confuse my love for the cobwebs
Confuse my love for the cobwebs

Confuse my love for the cobwebs
Confuse my love for the cobwebs
Confuse my love for the cobwebs
Confuse my love for the cobwebs

For the cobwebs
For the cobwebs
For the cobwebs
For the cobwebs
