

Crazy Now

Ryan Adams

I don't wanna carry your curse
That was supposed to reimburse
What the thing was that I couldn't make work
I don't wanna walk in the dark
If these shadows are made
Of the promises I couldn't make up

Maybe everything is not okay
I feel so crazy now
Maybe everything is not okay
But I'm gonna do it anyway

I don't wanna watch us grow old
Unless the story is told
How we lost all control of our minds
I don't wanna be yours unless I can better and best
All the things that never ever made sense

Maybe everything is not okay
I feel so crazy now
Maybe everything is not okay
I feel so crazy now
Maybe everything is not okay
But I'm gonna do it anyway

But if I'm ever after you
All we hear is laughter

I don't wanna wake up alive
Without you by my side
And the sun is turning gold in your eyes
I don't want to break what is mine
While it's spring in our hearts
And everything blossoms inside

Maybe everything is not okay
I feel so crazy now
Maybe everything is not okay
I feel so crazy now
Maybe everything is not okay
Maybe everything is not okay
Maybe everything is not okay
But I'm gonna do it anyway
