Dear Candy

Ryan Adams

I was never near just a shadow on your walls I was never here at all. Dear Candy... I was never yours. You were never mine. I was never near at all. Dear Candy... This was all a fantasy of yours. This was just a dream you had and I was never here. I was never here. You were never mine. I was never yours. Whoah, Candy. Oh, Candy. Do you see me in your dreams? Do you whisper my name? Do you hear when my static rings in your ears? Candy I was never yours. You were never mine. I was never near at all. Dear Candy... This was all a fantasy of yours. This was just a dream you had and I was never here. I was never here. I was never here at all. Oh, Candy
