

Do Not Disturb

Ryan Adams

Watch that sun, it rises over the beach
Over the houses there
Watch that sun, it rises over the people
Those people
I think I understand that it's nice to escape
But can your mind really clear its thoughts
Of what's actually happening out there?

Hmm, I wouldn't know
I always got my eye on my back
It's just this thing that I do, I don't know
I don't pretend I know what it's like
To live a normal life
I just do my bit and carry myself
Out of my place when it's night
It isn't working for me
And I know, I know when to go
I know when to leave

The hotel bar is closed
The sign on the door of my mind
Says, 'Do Not Disturb Anymore'
The hotel bar is closed
The sign on the door of my mind
Says, 'Do Not Disturb Anymore'

My heart
My heart
My heart is closed
My heart
My heart's all packed up and ready to go

Watch that sun, it rises in my soul
Watch that sun, it rises till it falls
Watch that sun, it rises in my soul
Watch that sun, it rises till it falls
