Ghorgon, Master of War

Ryan Adams

Evil overtakes him
The dragon speaks in tongues
The master has arisen
To swallow up the systems
And enslave the souls
Ghorgon – Master of war
Ghorgon – Evil emperor
Torches light the castle
And the path up to the metal doors
Of his wicked fortress
Death is all around him
He's surrounded by the crystal skulls
This will continue till the system collapse under their control
```
