

Halo

Ryan Adams

I see you walking by
I feel it in my bones
Its just like a halo but its broke

So tell me what you want
And maybe I would try
I feel it around my head
And it shines

Oh, I waited too long
Oh, I waited too long

You see me as you passed
These days they last so long
Its like we'll never know what it is until its gone

So tell me what you want
Its not like I don't know
I see a strange reflection in the lights as we go

Ohh, I waited too long
Ohh, I waited too long
Ohh, I waited too long
Ohh, I waited too long
Too long
Too long
Too long
Oohh
