

I Can See the Light

Ryan Adams

Look into my heart
Do you see the shadows that you cast?
Do you see the future or the past?
I see the light
I see the light
Ain't no lookin back now
Does it matter who is wrong or right?
I can feel the darkness breaking
And I can see the light
I can see the light

It fills my heart
And it fills my heart
Take me back
Take me back to the start
Hold me forever in your loving arms

Shakin in my bones
Starin in the wind outside my door
Trouble I don't want you anymore
I see the light
I see the light
Praying for a silence
Down on my hands and knees I'm crawling away
Banish the night, let me hear you say
I see the light
I see the light

It fills my heart
And it fills my heart
Take me back
Take me back to the start
Hold me forever in your lovin arms

Yeah cause I can see the light
See the light
See the light
See the light

Nothing even grows here
Look at this garden poisoned with this doubt
Can't see anything, I'm lookin out
Can you hear me scream?
Can you hear me shout?
The shadow of my father
All of the sins before me he has done
Before you breathe a breath the deal is done
I see the sun
I see the sun

And it fills my heart
And it fills my heart
And it fills my heart, heart
And it fills my heart, heart
My heart, heart
Take me back

Hold me forever in your lovin arms
