

I Got Lost

Ryan Adams

It's all lies, you believe 'em anyway
Can't hold me, now I shake
I shake, shiver and I ache for you

One love, it's open and true
You smiling back at me
Me smiling back at you

All the way back home
Ooh, I must've got lost

Another figure fading into my past
Feel like I'm speeding, pressing on the gas
I'm getting nowhere, nowhere fast

I feel the engine beneath my feet
Feel it in my chest, but my heart don't beat
It kicks a can up the middle of the street
Callin' out to you

All the way back home
Got lost

It's all lies, you believe 'em anyway
Can't hold me, now I shake
I shake, shiver and I ache for you
