Never Run

Ryan Adams

Say you never knew
Nothin but the truth
Then two more drinks
The sun sets right on you
And we're just driving wild
On some open road
Goin nowhere
We got nowhere to go

See those telephones
Hanging by a wire
We wait a million years
That shit will never expire
Maybe the hardest ones
Are the ones that don't
Cause any threat
To you at all

You say the reasons why
Are enough to run
Yeah we'll never try
No we'll never run
No we'll never run
Oh we'll never run
Oh we'll never run
Oh we'll never run
