

Run

Ryan Adams

Was it hard for you to walk away from this broken man?
I shoulda shook my head
I shoulda said "God damn"
I ain't got nothing right now but a pile of regrets

And if the darkness is on its way back to me now
Leave the porch lights on
Maybe I'll find my way back
And if the darkness goes
I'm gonna follow my own tracks
And I'll run

Was it it hard to question everything when nothing's ever wrong
I shoulda shut my trap
Shoulda been thankful for that
I ain't got nothin' right now but I ain't looking back

And if the darkness is on its way back to me now
Leave the porch lights on
I'm gonna find my way back
If the darkness goes
I'm gonna follow my own tracks
And I'll run
I'm gonna find my way back into your arms
I'm gonna drive until I beat that setting sun
I'm gonna run
I'm gonna run

Was it hard for you to walk away from this broken man?
I shoulda shook my head
I shoulda said "God damn"
I ain't got nothing right now but a pile of regrets

And if the darkness is on its way back to me now
Leave the porch lights on
Maybe I'll find my way back
If the darkness goes
I'm gonna follow my own tracks
And I'll run
I'm gonna find my way back into your arms
I'm gonna find my way
I'm gonna find my way
I'm gonna find my way
