

Shinin' through the Dark

What ever happened to the old me?
What ever happened to us?
Whatever it was, it doesn't matter now
Those days went speeding by
And left us in the dust

Car's on empty
It rattles in the rust

Whatever this is is permanent
The red wine stain or scar
And one of those if you put the negative
You knew who I was
Yeah, even before
I even knew you're just looking me up [?]

But these wheels turn fast
These wheels turn bright
Reflecting our love
The moon goes shining
Shining through the dark of the night
Shining through the dark of the night

You know the half I wanna buy
I wanna buy it for you
It's in my head when my head hits the pillow and I'm lying here
Lying here next to you
Whatever this is is permanent
My feet are scarred and bruised
Everything you know I ever did before was just to get me back
Get me back here with you

And these wheels turn fast
These wheels turn bright
Reflecting our love
The moon goes shining
Shining through the darks of the night
These wheels turn fast
These wheels turn bright
Reflecting our love
The moon goes shining
Shining through the darks of the night
Shining through the darks of the night
Shining through the darks of the night
Shining through the darks of the night
