

Sword and Stone

Ryan Adams

Time is a bitch and it's never on her side
I feel your heart beat faster next to mine
Leavin intentions in the places we lied
I get so lost but I keep it inside

I want a love that is honest and is true
As all the pain that the longing want to do [?]
Getting so hot that it turns to blue
Open the vaults cause it melts the glue
Oh oh
Oh oh
Oh oh oh oh

Don't take forever like you think it's gonna last
What's in the future will just let go of the past
I wanna breathe, wanna break the cast
I wanna see but without the mask

I want a love that is honest and is true
As all the pain that the longing want to do [?]
Getting so hot that it turns to blue
Getting so hot that it turns to blue

Burning inside
Every lover awaits by the phone
It's flesh and bone

Burning inside
Every kiss is a sword in the stone
In stone
In stone
In stone
