

You Are the Enemy

Ryan Adams

Before they lay the pavement
The street is only rocks
It's dirty and it's dust
And totally pissed off
No one in the corner
No buses pullin off
Before they lay the pavement, 'fore the sunsets stop

And fuck runnin from the cops
You get your brains blown off
Can you hear the sirens?
Can you hear the dogs?
Racing through the alley
Fuckin speedball
Criminal and crooked
Crooked or just pure
Breaking out the window
So classic, so cool

Before you poured the gasoline
Pull me closer and kiss me

Fuck you America
Fuck your schools
Fuck your society
You are the enemy
Fuck you America
Fuck your schools
Fuck your society
You are the enemy
Fuck you America
Fuck your schools
Fuck your society
You are the enemy
Fuck you America
Fuck your schools
Fuck your society
You are the enemy
