

(In) A Time with No Phones...

Ryan Amador

Can we go back
Can we go back to
Can we go back to no words
When sound traveled farther
When your hands did the work
Can we go back to
Drawing gods in the earth and
Markets trended with nature's work
I want to be a caveman
Want to be caveman
Strip it down, strip it down
Want to be caveman
Want to be a caveman
Strip it down, strip it down
