

No Looking Back

Ryan Amador

How could something so good be gone so fast?
I thought that it wouldn't end, I thought it would last (I thought it would last)
One minute you're holding me then the next you're posting pictures with somebody else
Holding hands, well, I'm moving on, no looking back (no looking back)

You can walk in my dust (no hanging on, no holding back)
You can think about us (I'm moving on, that's in my past)
You can take back our trust, you lost it and I don't want it
No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah

No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah
No looking back, no looking back (yeah yeah)

How could someone so cold be gone in a flash?
Thought that I'd be crying but I'm feeling a laugh (I'm feeling a laugh)
Suddenly our forever looks more like the past
And every promise was just some dishonest fear transaction
Well, I'm learning now, there's no looking back, mmh-hm

You can walk in my dust (no hanging on, no holding back)
You can think about us (I'm moving on, that's in my past)
You can take back our trust, you lost it and I don't want it
No looking back, nah (no looking back)
Put me down if you dare (I'm sorry sis, no turning back)
Blame me, I don't care (no more waiting, just turn up the charm)
You can say it ain't fair or flaunted, but I don't want it
No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah

No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah
No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah
No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah
No looking back, no looking back

Say your sorry, lay it on me now (oh, there's one more chance)
Say you're wrong and turn it all around

I'll let you walk in my dust (no hanging on, no holding back)
You can think about us (I'm moving on, that's in my past)
Let you take back our trust, you lost it and I don't want it
No looking back, no looking back, no
Put me down if you dare (I'm sorry sis, no turning back)
Blame me, I don't care (no more waiting, just turn up the charm)
You can say it ain't fair or flaunted, but I don't want it
No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah

(Say your sorry, lay it on me now) no looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah
No looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah
(Say you're wrong and turn it all around) no looking back, no looking back, yeah yeah

No looking back, no looking back
