

Question Everything

Ryan Amador

Traditional captivity
Historical society
Perpetual propriety
Spoon-fed lies
We're paralyzed
Open your eyes
Question Everything
Capital or communal
Customer or creator
The yin and yang
Just play the game
Will we ever know
I'm spinning
You question everything
Boy turn your mind off
You question everything
Boy turn your mind off
Deliberate
Or desecrate
My friends don't give a shit how I'm doing in LA
About to break
Was I betrayed?
Did I betray?
Question everything
I'm blinded by the fog in my mind
Full face stuck in the glaze, am I blind?
Can't move, can't move a finger
I think it 'till I kill it
Questioning, questioning, questioning
You question everything
Boy turn your mind off
You question everything
Boy turn your mind off
You question everything
Won't you turn your mind off?
You question everything
Won't you turn your mind off?
Won't you turn your mind off?...
