

Someone

Ryan Amador

I've never met someone quite as rich as you
I've never met someone quite as rich as you
But I do what I do

I've never met someone quite as lost as me
I've never met someone quite as lost as me
But I'm free, you bet I'm free

Oh, could you forgive me
While I'm wandering through these dreams?
There'll be no reward
And I'll never see my prize
I want to be someone
I want to be someone
In your eyes

I've never met someone who talks as much as him
I've never met someone who chokes on all our sins
Then he wins
You bet he wins

Oh, could you forgive me
While I'm wandering through these dreams?
There'll be no reward
There will be prize
You want to be someone
You want to be someone
And I might die trying

I want to be someone
I want to be someone
In your eyes
