

Spectrum

Ryan Amador

Where do YOU fall on the spectrum of sexuality? of sexuality?
Where do YOU fall on the spectrum of sexuality? of sexuality?

And I can truly swear that
Every love I share is a real thing
Yeah man it's a good thing
And it's buried deep, it's a part of me
It's a true thing; it's inside of me
Everyone loves someone regardless of their gender,
So why would you think there's some agenda?
Everyone loves a man and woman somewhere,
So why would you think there's nothing there?

Where do YOU fall on the spectrum of sexuality? of sexuality?
Where do YOU fall on the spectrum of sexuality? of sexuality?
What in nature moves linearly?
Planets and seasons move circularly
What in nature is really black and white?
Flowers and twilight share every shade of light
Every man loves a man; every woman loves a woman,
So why would you think that love's inhuman?
Every life wants to love and wants love in return,
So why would you want that love to burn?

Where do YOU fall on the spectrum of sexuality? of sexuality?
Where do YOU fall on the spectrum of sexuality? of sexuality?

Love is a gift from the powers on high
It gets rid of pain when you can't get by
And when you're facing terror,
You're scared for your life
Love is something greater that can make it right
And it's a colder world if you can't love you want
Take it from yourself to choose your love
No I don't want to see the same old script
It's like every child's taught to be the same old kid
I like to think of my God as an artist
Who'd paint me with a pallet of multi-chromomatics
So let's systematically remove the dogma
There's more than two ways you can reach a climax
And on the spectrum of your sexuality
Let's find respect for individuality
This train's a comin' like it was in the 60's
So hop on the scale and we'll weigh ya like Kinsey
