

Talk in the Morning

Ryan Amador

I swallowed my guilt
And I told you what I'm thinking
And who would have thought that we'd be standing here
Arguing instead of sleeping
I put my weapons down
Tied my hands and shut my mouth
Cause if we don't know what this war's about
I'd be ashamed to shoot you down
So do we want silence?
Or do we want peace?
And would you call this silence?
Or would you call it peace?
And I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning
I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning
I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning
If you feel how you were feeling last week, that's fine
But you wouldn't want to go through this every night, right?
I put my hands around your neck
Out of a need to frame your head
And in the heat, pressed it against my lips
Hard mouthed, I pulled you into bed
Take it out on me and my body
The slightest pain used to explain yourself
And as I dig my nails deep in your back
We become each other's animals
And do we want violence?
Or do we want peace?
And would you call this violence
Or would you call it peace?
I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning
I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning
I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning
I don't want to be up no more and (oh)
Let's talk in the morning, morning
Morning, morning
Morning, morning
Morning, morning
Our hearts slow down cause the fight is done
Nobody won
Did anything conclude and do we need it to?
(Do you?)
The war is over now, it's over now
Save your endorphins for the next one
These nights go on and on and on and on and on
Oh boy
What we want
What we want
What we want, oh
It's all for
What we want
Oh boy

What we want
What we want
What we want, oh
It's all for
What we want
And I don't want to be up no more
I don't want to be up no more
Let's talk in
I don't want to be, don't want to be, don't want to be
Up no more/ You wouldn't want to go through this every night
Right?
Right?
Right?
Right?
