

Simple Song

Ryan Beatty

It's just another lazy summer afternoon,
Summer breeze blowing into my bedroom
Before I even put my feet on the floor,
I start strumming the chords on my guitar,
It's just a C sharp minor, to the B major,
It sounds kinda like the summer breeze to me,
And it makes me want to sing.

It ain't complicated,
Just a little syncopating,
Maybe it's understated but I like it, I like it, oh.

It's just a simple song,
It's not gonna hurt if you sing along,
Maybe if it moves you, you can dance,
Cause all you really really want,
Is a tune you can hum till the break of dawn,
And everybody knows that it's the jam,
And it goes a little something like,
Lalalalalalaaa,
It's just a simple song,
Lalalalalalaaa,
Everybody sing along,
Lalalalalalaaa, lalalala, yeah.

It's just another crazy Friday night,
All my friends hanging on the beach round the bonfire,
Someone writing on guitar, and they knew the chord.
It's just a C sharp minor, to the B major,
It sounds really good with the ocean waves,
And it makes everybody sing.

It ain't complicated,
Just a little syncopating,
Maybe it's understated but I like it, I like it, oh.

It's just a simple song,
It's not gonna hurt if you sing along,
Maybe if it moves you, you can dance,
Cause all you really really want,
Is a tune you can hum till the break of dawn,
And everybody knows that it's the jam,
And it goes a little something like,
Lalalalalalaaa,
It's just a simple song,
Lalalalalaaa,
Everybody sing along,
Lalalalalalaaa, lalalala, yeah,
Lalalalala, it's just a simple song.

Ooooh, yeah, yeah. Oh.
It's just a simple song, oh yeah.
Ooh.

It's just another simple song,
It still sounds good if you sing it wrong,
Maybe you can move so you can dance,

Cause all you really really want is a tune you can sing till the break of dawn,
And everybody knows that it's the jam,
And it goes a little something like,
Lalalalalalaaa, 3 chords and a melody,
Lalalalalalaaa, it's just a simple song,
Lalalalalalaaa, lalalalalaaa,
Lalalalalalaaa, and this is my simple song.
