

You're My Girl

Ryan Beatty

So schocked, I can't believe it
This ain't the way I seen it
Now that you're here girl
I don't want to let you go
You've caught me in the moment
Can't hide how bad I want it
This to be real and it's time I let you know

Oh girl you've got that something
That's got my heartbeat jumping
You pick me up and turn my world around, oh oh
You made me finally see
That you're the only girl I need
And tonight I'm bout to show the world you're mine

You're the only girl that I think about
Anytime I'm feeling down
You know how to pick me up
You're the only girl
You're the only girl for me (for me)
You're the only girl that I think about
Anytime I'm feeling down
You know how to pick me up
You're the only girl
You're the only girl for me
Cuz you're my girl

You're running out of reasons
Why not the one you're seeing
All of my friend are saying we should be, oh oh
I'ts been a while since we've been talking and
I've been thinking it would be cool
If it was you and me, yeah yeah

Oh girl you've got that something
That's got my heartbeat jumping
You pick me up and turn my world around, oh oh
You made me finally see
That you're the only girl I need
And tonight I'm bout to show the world you're mine

You're the only girl that I think about
Anytime I'm feeling down
You know how to pick me up
You're the only girl
You're the only girl for me (for me)
You're the only girl that I think about
Anytime I'm feeling down
You know how to pick me up
You're the only girl
You're the only girl for me
Cuz you're my girl
