

Adventures of You and Me

Ryan Bingham

Uno dos tres cuatro

We broke down on the side of the road
Heading up to New York City
You held your thumb out in the wind
I held a cardboard sign for Lower East Side Bridge

Across the Brooklyn Bridge, the rain was falling
The wolves of Wall Street swallowed the Empire State
We never cared 'cause the old town bar was hopping
We got drunk and we danced around in the street

Adventures of you and me will last forever
I'm not too sure about this world
I hope someday it all comes together, baby
Until it does, well, I'm sure glad that you're my girl

Heading back west, yeah, we come undone
And the train derailed in Texas
Two-stepping down on the Guadalupe
With the Tornadoes and Flaco Jimenez

We made friends with long-haired hippie stoners
Living so high that our minds are out of reach
We come down 'cause the music in town was balling
We closed our eyes and we danced along with the beat

Adventures of you and me will last forever
I'm not too sure about this world
I hope someday it all comes together, baby
Until it does, well, I'm sure glad that you're my girl

Hitched a ride on a deisel freight liner
Out across New Mexico
Sipping cerveza with salt and lime
Singing along with songs on the radio

We passed out and woke up in California
The concrete jungle was a-busting at the seams
The angles down in Los Angeles were calling
So out on the boardwalk we danced all night with a breeze

Adventures of you and me will last forever
I'm not too sure about this world
I hope someday it all comes together, baby
Until it does, well, I'm sure glad that you're my girl
