

Endless Ways

Ryan Bingham

I'm a getting so tired, of what you say
You're letting this whole world, go down the drain
I'm gonna stand up, and say my name
Cause I'm a getting tired of your endless ways

You want more money, in your hand
You want more blood from a foreign land
I'm a gonna stand up, and say my name
Cause everybody's tired of your endless ways

I'm a getting so tired of what you say
I'm a gonna stand up, and get in your face
I'm getting so tired, of what you say
Everybody's tired of your endless ways

You think your lies, will ever die
You think we won't hear, the people cry
You should wake up, and hear us say
That everybody's tired of your endless ways
