

Amazing

Ryan Caraveo

These moments are fingerprints, I hope you enjoy 'em 'cause
As soon as you blink, that's it
Even though I'm here alone
I still feel your pheromones linger through my ligaments
I was chasin' magic and I always almost had it
It was always almost worth it
I always need a minute, I'm always almost finished
It's always almost perfect
I've held trophies and I've seen gold
But they never did glow like you
Begged me to be here, said it right in my ear
I just wish it didn't go right through

And she said, "You're amazing
I hope you get whatever you're chasin'
Before it turns us into strangers
I believe in you, but I can't stay here"
"Even though you're amazing
I hope you get whatever you're chasin'
Before it turns us into strangers
I believe in you, but I can't stay here"

These moments are fingerprints, I hope you enjoy 'em 'cause
As soon as you blink, that's it
We don't ever get a repeat
Eyes get a little weepy every single time I think of it
Always tryna make it happen
Always flippin', always stackin'
Always put you off 'til next week
Next week never came
Just me, another day all alone in these bedsheets
I've had losses that were colossal, but they never felt like this
Always so attached to takin' over the map
That I didn't even see you slip

And she said, "You're amazing
I hope you get whatever you're chasin'
Before it turns us into strangers
I believe in you, but I can't stay here"
"Even though you're amazing
I hope you get whatever you're chasin'
Before it turns us into strangers
I believe in you, but I can't stay here"
