Glacier

Ryan Caraveo

We do what ever we feel in our guts
Cause we know one day we'll all just be dust
We know anything could take us but face it
In the end we know it'll prolly be us

Your face is stuck on a loop in my head
If I can't be with ya then who can I then?
Please save this song, play it at my funeral
So you know the whole truth when I'm dead

Life just moves on but the memories stay
All I can see in my brain is your face
If I could do it, I would take the feeling you give me
And inject it straight in my veins

I'm in the passenger seat while you speeding
Watching your face while you swerving and weaving
Seeing my life in your hands brings me peace
I don't care if I go home in pieces

My hearts a glacier
Set my self on fire just to feel alive
My hearts a glacier
Set my self on fire just to feel alive

I love the way that you hold me
I love the way you that face a whole O Z
I love the way that you say that you love the pain
But I can see you hate it low-key

You get it you understand
I got this flame you were the twin
Done this before know how it ends
But oh well fuck it let's do it again

Let me in I wanna tend to your trauma
Lower your walls let me enter your armor
I let you do the same but it just renews the pain
Maybe we are just each others karma

I guess that means I deserve you
I don't just need I prefer you
You said to leave you alone so I'm chasing you
Because lil baby I heard you

My hearts a glacier
Set my self on fire just to feel alive
My hearts a glacier
Set my self on fire just to feel alive
