

Holly

Ryan Caraveo

Holly, would you call me if I cut off everybody?
(Would you? Would you?)
If I say you are my buddy

All praise to the most poppin'
They ain't shut the show, fine show stoppin'
Replace real friends with workin' hard
Take criticism like the word of God
I don't know if I need Jesus
Or just one A-list feature
I don't need church on a Sunday
Just play this while they walk down the runway
I don't really take any meds
But if that's what it takes to be friends
Let me know and hit me back
I gave you everything, at least give me that

Holly, would you call me if I cut off everybody
And I show you I can party just like you?
Holly, would you call me if I tighten up my body
And I spend up all my money just like you?

Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, would you call me?
Holly, would you call me? Yeah

All praise to the billboard
If I'm not there, what I'm here for?
I just wanna sell out, fill more
Once I do that, maybe I'll feel more
I don't know if I need a savior
Or ten write-ups in FADER
I don't need to read no scripture
Just need Kylie to tag me in a picture
I can't afford these clothes
But if that's what it takes to be close
Let me know and hit me back
I gave you everything, at least give me that

Holly, would you call me if I cut off everybody
And I show you I can party just like you?
Holly, would you call me if I tighten up my body
And I spend up all my money just like you?

After all the years I've put in
I think it's finally happenin'
And you said that you happy for me
How come life is sadder then?
(How come life is sadder then?)

Holly, would you call me if I cut off everybody
And I show you I can party just like you?

Holly, would you call me if I tighten up my body
And I spend up all my money just like you?

Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, would you call me?
Holly, would you call me? Yeah
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, Holly
Holly, would you call me?
Holly, would you call me? Yeah
