

Nutcase

Ryan Caraveo

If I had one wish and one wish only
I'd bottle up home and I'd drink it when I'm lonely
Solo every night 'til six in the morning
If this is paradise I wish somebody warned me

Only see my brother every two or three months now
Had a lot in common back then there ain't much now
Can't refer to my friends as my friends
'Cause if I was really one I would check up on them

I like to think that they proud of me
And that they understand what this shit is taking out of me
I'm hanging on by a thread
Think I got it all together but I am

Still a nutcase, still a psycho
Tellin' mama any day I might blow up
Stayin' up late, where did time go
Still ain't caught a break but I'm like so what
Will my luck change fuck if I know
If I hear another no I might throw up
I'm a nutcase, I'm a psycho, I'm a psycho

But any day I might blow up
Any any day now, any day, any day
Any day now
Any any day now, any day, any day

If I used that wish but then I got an extra
I'd clip my memories then make a best of Watch my family before it got messed up
Seeing them together would be better than the best drugs

Told myself when I make it I'll fix that Deep down I know I won't get it back
I don't want no money as funny as it sounds
If that was gonna fix it it'd done it by now

I like to think I'm a sacrifice
Just a little longer 'fore I get to live a happy life
I'm hanging on by a thread
Think I got it all together but I am

Still a nutcase, still a psycho
Tellin' mama any day I might blow up
Stayin' up late, where did time go
Still ain't caught a break but I'm like so what
Will my luck change fuck if I know
If I hear another no I might throw up
I'm a nutcase, I'm a psycho, I'm a psycho

But any day I might blow up
Any any day now, any day, any day
Any day now
Any any day now, any day, any day

Any day, any day, any day

I might blow up
Any day, any day, any day
I might blow up
