

Permanent Red

Ryan Caraveo

Norms get severed
And storms get weathered
I let fake shit fly like
Porcelain feathers

That means I don't so
Keep copacetic
You do drugs cuz it's cool
You just cope for aesthetic

I been battling demons
Like a deacon in church
And I'll be gone off the deep end
Til' I'm deep in the dirt

There is a sumo tsunami
Inside of my soul
I think I tried every vice
Tryin' to clog up that whole

Let it swirl let it swirl let it swirl
In my head
To my rage for my age I see
Permanent red
Let it swirl let it swirl let it swirl
In my mind
Keep it spinnin' keep it spinnin' I swear
That I'm fine
Just let it swirl
Just let it swirl
Just let it swirl
Just let it swirl

Smoothie of my moods
They blend in together
Treat the trauma with trance
I don't mention it ever

That means look out
Cuz I'm manic I may
Play you like a puppet
Just because I'm havin' a day

I been tickin' and tockin'
Like a grandfather clock
And I'll be sick
Until I am just a phantom I'm lost

There is a vicious volcano
Inside of my soul
I think I tried every vice
Tryin' to clog up that whole

Let it swirl let it swirl let it swirl
In my head
To my rage for my age I see
Permanent red

Let it swirl let it swirl let it swirl
In my mind
Keep it spinnin' keep it spinnin' I swear
That I'm fine
Just let it swirl
Just let it swirl
Just let it swirl
Just let it swirl

Too much rage for my age
I see permanent red
I see...
Just let it swirl
