

Sugarcoated

Ryan Caraveo

You remind me of what I've done as if You're afraid of what I can become, yeah
If you're so qualified, how come you throttle my potential?
What are you hidin' from? Yeah
Got superpowers, I been movin' mountains, why
When I'm around you, I bite on my tongue? Yeah
You're such a succubus, your luck is up, this is My big finale, I'm finally done

I cannot take the sugarcoated bullshit anymore, anymore
I cannot take the sugarcoated bullshit anymore, anymore
If you wanna take something, take something
If you wanna break something, break something
I cannot take the sugarcoated bullshit anymore, anymore

How come my happiness is so offensive to you?
Please tell me what you're jealous of, yeah
You treat relationships like it's just sex and gifts
I don't think you ever fell in love, yeah
You say you're paranoid, but you can barely voice
Any legitimate reason to, yeah
But I think I know why you cannot sleep at night
'Cause you think I might get even soon

I cannot take the sugarcoated bullshit anymore, anymore
I cannot take the sugarcoated bullshit anymore, anymore
If you wanna take something, take something
If you wanna break something, break something
I cannot take the sugarcoated bullshit anymore, anymore
