

Yellow Lines

Ryan Caraveo

I don't know why I feel so incomplete
I'd trade anything for inner-peace
Someone prolly shoulda took my keys
I'm doing 120 just to feel the breeze
I've had so many failed leaps of faith
I'm taking medicine to ease the aches
Catching feelings from these one night stands
Trying to piece together this puzzle that I am

I've been runnin' at these lights so long
But now these lights, they
These lights they runnin' at me
These lights they runnin' at me
And I've been running as fast as I can, but
As fast as I can, but
They might just run over me
They might just run over me

Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow

I don't know why I feel so insecure
Drinkin' vodka like it contains the cure
A couple uppers just to open up
Chewing bubble gum so no one knows what's up
Living life like every day's a race
Looking back, such a terrible mistake
When I die, just a sentence on a stone
Travel too far, never found your way home

I've been runnin' at these lights so long
But now these lights, they
These lights they runnin' at me
These lights they runnin' at me
And I've been running as fast as I can, but
As fast as I can, but
They might just run over me
They might just run over me

Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow

I don't even know where these roads even lead
Cause somehow they destination still controlling me
They make me miss out on the parties that everyone else enjoys

I can't sing along to the music cause all I hear is noise
Wind in my ears, wind in my ears
Turn into weeks I don't recall
These lights, they runnin' at me
And they might just run over me

Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow lines
Leave me on the yellow
Leave me on the yellow
