

Palm Trees In Ohio

Ryan Hurd

When there's no sand at the beach
When there's no money in Vegas
When the stars don't shine

When there's no shots in a bar
When there's no radio playing
On a back road drive
Ooh 'til they learn how to turn back time
Ooh I'll be yours and you'll be mine

'Til there's palm trees in Ohio
No traffic in LA
No snow in Colorado
No cold beer on a Saturday
When the Great Lakes run out of water
When the sky stops turning blue
That's when I
That's when I
That's when I'm gonna stop loving you

When there's no rain in the clouds
There ain't no twang in the south
And no man in the moon
When cowboys stop wearing boots
Yeah and country music
Ain't three chords and the truth
Ooh when the world don't spin around the sun in a year
Ooh yeah, girl I'm gonna be right here

'Til there's palm trees in Ohio
No traffic in LA
No snow in Colorado
No cold beer on a Saturday
When the Great Lakes run out of water
When the sky stops turning blue
That's when I
That's when I
That's when I'm gonna stop loving you
Ooh-ooh-ooh

When there's no lights in New York City
When there's no hope in a prayer
'Til the day after forever
Baby, I ain't going nowhere
Baby, I ain't going nowhere

'Til there's palm trees in Ohio
No traffic in LA
No snow in Colorado
No cold beer on a Saturday
When the Great Lakes run out of water
When the sky stops turning blue
That's when I
That's when I
That's when I'm gonna stop loving you

That's when I

That's when I
That's when I'm gonna stop loving you
Ooh-ooh-ooh
