Platonic

Ryan Hurd

You and me never crossed that line
'Cause you and me we ain't never been single at the same time
But you and me, yeah it's crossed my mind
And I can see you're thinking the same thing in your eyes

Couple tequila shots and this neon lit Saturday night
The way that you're talking with your body has got me like

Aww yeah, hey girl, if I'm being honest
I can't see you and say that I don't wanna
Kiss you right now, baby, I can promise
There ain't no way we can be platonic

No, no, no
No, no, no

Can't put the words back into my mouth
Already said it, it's too late to turn back now
I don't wanna ever be just friends
So let me say it again, say it again, yeah

Aww yeah, hey girl, if I'm being honest
I can't see you and say that I don't wanna
Kiss you right now, baby, I can promise
There ain't no way we can be platonic

This ain't the tequila talking
I've wanted you girl for so long
And don't let me leave here alone without you, baby

Aww yeah, hey girl, if I'm being honest
I can't see you and say that I don't wanna
Kiss you right now, baby, I can promise
There ain't no way we can be platonic

Aww yeah, hey girl, if I'm being honest
I can't see you and say that I don't wanna
Kiss you right now, baby, I can promise
There ain't no way we can be platonic

(No, no, no) there ain't no way we can be platonic
(No, no, no) there ain't no way we can be platonic
(No, no, no) there ain't no way we can be platonic
(No, no, no)
