Falling Hard

Ryan Leslie

Hmm

She mad 'cause she asks me to settle, I never do it
Bad too, just like the others, I put her through it
Up, downs, ins and outs, it's story tellin'
Why you gotta come out your mouth, you know we yellin', right? (Damn)
Bangin' my face then call back
You look like you need your space, I fall back (Oh, yeah)
Then we right back in it, we right back to it
You let me back in 'cause you love the way I do it, it's Les
You gotta be patient, you gotta be good to me
Know I, I might frustrate you
You know that's just my nature
And I, know you cry, know it's been heavy on your mind
Questionin' how I feel, when you already know the drill

And the harder and harder that we fight, uh
We make it easy, easy to lose sight, uh
And even though there's a monster in us all, uh
Still the harder, harder that we fall

Fallin' hard for you, babe, fallin' hard for you, babe
I'm fallin' hard for you, baby (Yeah, uh)
Fallin' hard for you, babe, fallin' hard for you, baby-by (Fallin')
Fallin' hard for you, babe (Baby, I'm fallin'), I'm fallin' hard for you, ba by
I'm fallin' hard for you, babe
I'm fallin' hard for you, babe

You gotta be patient (Patient)
'Cause if it really is destiny (Destiny)
I'll be (I'll be) right here with you
We gon' paint a perfect picture
And I know your heart (Your heart)
Know our names are written in the stars (Stars)
And you know I'ma have your back
Can't nobody argue that

And the harder and harder that we fight, uh
We make it easy, easy to lose sight, ayy
And even though there's a monster in us all (That we recognize)
Still the harder, harder that we fall

Fallin' hard for you, babe, fallin' hard for you, babe (Fallin' hard)
I'm fallin' hard for you, baby (Fallin' hard, I'm fallin' hard)
I'm fallin' hard for you, babe (Fallin' hard, I'm fallin' hard, fallin' hard
Fallin' hard for you, baby-by (Fallin' hard, fallin' hard)
Fallin' hard for you, babe (I'm fallin' hard)
I'm fallin' hard for you, baby (Fallin' hard)
I'm fallin' hard for you, babe (Fallin' hard for you, babe)
I'm fallin' hard for you, babe (For you, baby)

And before I ever let you down (Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)
The sun comes crashin' to the ground
Let's fly to all time high, alright, for a lifetime
And when we fight, and when we fight (Fight)

You know I'm just lookin' for a shot at redemption (Redemption)

I'm fallin' hard for you, baby (I'm fallin')
I'm fallin' hard for you, baby (For you, baby)
I'm fallin' hard for you, baby (I'm fallin')
I'm fallin' hard for you, babe

And even though there's a monster in us all
Still the harder, harder that we fall
