

One In A Million

Ryan Leslie

Listen you know I take it all back mama
You are one in a million girl
You are one in a million baby

Girl I'm trying to handle my jealousy
I didn't short cared when you was with me
And now you and him is all I see
(Oh baby just rock with it)

I was working late always seeing late

I seemed to collect everything we had
I played it off every time you got mad
I should have payed more attention
Girl and I know it
I didn't realize you were leaving me
We had a good thing girl and blew it

I should have gave you all of me
I could have give you all you need
